Equally, if you get caught using an account generated through these programs, there are big consequences. The official Roblox site strongly advises against using schemes like account generators. They say that anyone asking you to input your details anywhere is scamming you, and that you won't receive a glitched account or free Robux. The terms of service also warn against it, too. They say that you cannot obtain "exploited game or experience content." This includes hacked accounts with Robux. If you're caught doing this, they reserve the right to immediately close your account.

I'm not entirely sure. That's a tremendous number! But since Roblox put that stat in the documents it had to file before going public, it seems like a safe bet. If Roblox lied to shareholders, there'd probably be hell to pay.
